

Nelson Cattlemen

Ran Baldy-faced Hereford Cattle at first in Strawberry Valley in the summer & then fed them in Heber yards in winter.

Then cattlemen from Utah Valley took over Strawberry summer range, so the Nelsons moved their cattle into Soapstone & Wolf Creek summer ranges. They still fed their cattle on their Heber farms in the winter.

Nelsons ran about 500 cattle

Their brand was to cut off Rt ear.

Each Nelson had his own brand.
